Oakville

Oakville, May 3.- Those attending the district meeting of the W. S. C. S. in Lynchburg on Thursday were Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., Mrs. Hubbard Moore and Mrs. W. Clarke Moore.

Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., District Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, is now helping with the officers' training meetings throughout the district. She led the opening worship at Zion Methodist Church near Gretna on Tuesday evening.

Jimmy Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., is progressing nicely in his collection of red ribbons in the 4-H Club. Recently he won second place in the senior division of the county 4-H Share-the-Fun contest. On Saturday he participated in the district 4-H program held in Farmville, and came home as second place winner in forestry.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Marshall, of Lynchburg celebrated their son, Doug's birthday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Moore at Oakville on Saturday afternoon. They invited his little friends around here and some from Lynchburg. Everyone had a good time and wished Doug many more happy birthdays. He was three years old.

The W. S. C. S. of Mt. Comfort Church will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 at the church.

Doug Marshall is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Moore.

The spectator is back and is being welcomed by women who always feel right in sports clothes or street clothes when they are wearing a spectator type shoe.

Blue and white, brown and white and black patent and white all have their buyers.

Some women prefer the solid pump and others the open toe. The open toe with open heel is also popular. Leather may be solid or of pin-pointed pig skin.

Another sensible shoe, but one of elegance, is black alligator. The heels are sensible, and toes are more oval rather than pointed.
